HOLMEADS LOSE BIG TURNERY

Petworth Defeats the League Champions by 4 to 3 Score in Suburban Circuit.

SPENCE FEATURES GAMES

Princeton Heights Takes Five of the Seven Contests from Benedict's. Good Work in Singles.

Holmeads lost its first tournament of the season in yesterday's encounter with Petworth in their contest by a score of 4 to 3, this result being due to the absence of Louis Doyle, Barber, Williams and Holmeads, who were taking part in the tournament being held at the Columbia Country Club in Chevy Chase.

Princeton Heights dispelled all doubt as to their superiority over the Benedicts by taking five out of seven matches on the latter's courts. In former contest Holmeads was lucky to get its three matches, as the victory of Chip over Johnson was the only one that was at all decisive, the doubles matches of Bowen and Brown vs. the Lyon brothers and Nelson-Spence vs. the Benedicts being only taken after three hard sets in each affair.

The Princeton Heights-Benedict's controversy was by the most bitterly contested, as a defeat for either club meant relegation to the bottom of the league standing. The best work of the day was shown by the singles of Rose vs. Carr and Crampton vs. Nostel. In each instance the Benedict player took his first set in easy fashion, only to have his opponent come back with redoubled strength and take the next two sets.

MATHEWSON'S "CHANGE."

There must be a crick with a corrugated brow in the East—also without much real knowledge of the season's records behind the corrugations. He gravely announces that "Mathewson has changed his style of pitching, and is giving a great many more bases on balls than formerly, and has also hit many more this season." Inspection of the records show that Matty has hit two men all season, and that in 32 games he has given away 10 bases, which doesn't look much like "a great many," does it?

PENN AND VALE

CLAN MATCH RACE

Vivian Nickalls Invites His Brother Guy to Bring Blue Crew to Philadelphia.

WINNERS TO GO ABROAD

Guy is at Present Receiving the Largest Salary Paid Any Coach in This Country.

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—Vivian Nickalls, the Penn crew coach, has invited his brother, Guy Nickalls, who is the tutor of the athen blade wielders at Yale, to come to Philadelphia next spring and fetch down the Eli eight.

Nickalls would like to match his Red and Blue eight against the Blue in the American Henley regatta, on the Schuylkill; in fact, make a fixture event of the race. He figures that his brother having beaten Harvard, and his own eight being second at Poughkeepsie, two of the best college crews in the world would meet second at the two shells compete here.

A letter has gone to England, if Uncle Sam can deliver the trans-Atlantic mail, from Brother Viv to Brother Guy Nickalls, suggesting what a favorable little fete a race between their two eights would be. Both Guy Nickalls and Vivian Nickalls plan to take college crews abroad in the course of a season or so, and they had quite a chat here at Easter regarding that move.

They are both of the opinion that the best eight should turn out of the way for the other chap. For this reason they both agreed that a match race annually would be a most desirable thing.

Guy Nickalls has been engaged by Yale again; in fact, he is getting the largest salary paid any American rowing coach. He will draw $5,000 for a season's work at New Haven, Conn. Courtney, who tutors, and does the job splendidly, at Cornell, receives but $3,000. He has the use of a big house that was purchased for him by the Cornell alumni. Courtney has signed a ten-year contract at that figure.

James C. Bick, who tutors the Yale eight, the victors at the Poughkeepsie regatta this year, is paid $3,000. He, too, has a ten-year contract, and it will be 121 before he has received his final crew at Columbia. Jim Ten Eyck, of Syracuse, now gets $3,000, but an offer from Yale, before the Blue landed Guy Nickalls, was made for $4,000.

Yale simply offered him the coaching post at Yale, and Syracuse came along with a boost in salary and a three-year contract.

James C. Wray, of Harvard, pulls $2,000 per annum, but he does not direct the crew. He is a member of the committee, and they can back-seat Wray's ideas any time they desire.

It is believed that Vivian Nickalls, of Penn, is paid less than half of what his brother Guy is to receive from Yale, but Vivian has the long record as a coach, and is a more experienced tactician. If Nickalls makes another wonderful showing, he will get a big increase at Penn, it is believed.

TROJAN ELEVEN AFTER GAMES.

The Trojan football team, which had one of the fastest teams around the city, has been reorganized and promises to have one of the best line-ups in the District. Gerard, Kaplan, Frank Donovan, Altman, Regan, Maters, J. B. Nelson, Dean, and Blacencello will be in this year's line-up.

Vincent Gerard, manager of the strong Trojan baseball team will be in the line-up when his team is in need of a fast back. There have been several requests for games already, so all teams wishing to be on this year's schedule, kindly address V. Gerard, manager, 239 Third street southwest, city.

DE PALMA BREAKS RECORD.

Brighton Beach Race Track, Long Island, Sept. 5.—By winning three events, including the 100-yard dash, De Palma broke the record for the 100-yard dash, running it in 10.2 seconds. The old mark was 10.4 seconds, set by De Palma in 1913.

De Palma's record was broken by De Palma in 1913. The old mark was 10.4 seconds, set by De Palma in 1913.

FIRST LEAGUE TO START.

The Commercial Duplican League will get under way this season, the initial sets being carried for Thursday, September 10. The league will consist of three teams, one from each of the three districts. The league will start later in the season, but will be tried this season on the opening night. Several big money prizes will be hung up by the committee in charge.

FORESTVILLE RACES.

Following is the list of entries for the races carried for Forestville Driving Park tomorrow:

Colt race: trot or pace, two in three. Fallma, John, Biny, Rose Lightfoot, Dandy D, Killet, Winkie, McRory, Nancy T, Boco, and Sly.

Two-hundred trot or pace; best three in five—Buster Red, Grattan Girl, Hal-Beal, Dandy D, Killet, Winkie, McRory, Nancy T, Boco, and Sly.

MAY YET MEET IN BIG SERIES.

FRANK BAKER.

JOHNNY EVERS.

EDDIE COLLINS.

FOUR TEAMS ARE IN NECK-AND-NECK RACE.

Perhaps the National League has produced greater races than the one now in progress. Still, we have an idea the scramble among the Giants, Cubs, Braves, and Cards is one of the best on record.

Two or three days may find the deal all shaken up. It's scarcely probable that these four will all remain in a death struggle to the end.

On paper the Braves appear to have the edge. They have been, and still are, coming. They have had their slump, which was a bad one. They are sure with enthusiasm. So far Stallings seems to have solved the pitching problem—that of working only three men, and keeping them eternally at it.

New York is in the midst of a frightful slump. The pitchers are going badly. Critics wonder why McGraw isn't trying out some of his young hurriers during this crisis. Perhaps he has his own ideas on the subject.

Luck has been breaking with the Cubs. In spite of their long-continued ill success, they are keeping within easy striking distance. They have found that disasters have by no means put them out of the running. They are in a splendid position to strike, and strike hard.

The schedule favors the Boston and New Yorks. Both Chicago and St. Louis, the two Western teams in the running, wind up their seasons ahead. The Cards have shown themselves the better road squad of the two. The Braves have played some miserable ball.

Only four games were won on their last eastern trip. The wonder of it all is that they have been able to cling to the first division.

This is a hard race to dope out. There is a strong chance of the Cubs or the Giants coming back to life and of the Braves cracking. Still, the latter have shown no signs of retreating.

Less than a month and a half of the race is left. The struggle through August has been a most bitter one. That of September may be even more spirited.

Much depends on the pitchers of these four aggregations. Tyler, Rudolph, and James of the Braves have been lauded to the skies. If they can hit it up for the rest of the way, the Braves are a dangerous foe. If one blows, Boston's chances will be materially affected.

McGraw has lots of promise left, but it depends on his pitchers. The Braves are not on their stride. Neither is Marquard. It's strange to find the old spirit lacking in the Giants, but it isn't there the last week or ten days, we are told.

St. Louis is the dark horse, if a team only a brief way from the top can be so termed. The race is a toss-up, and the breaks from now on will be vital ones.

SPARTAN ELEVEN TO HOLD FIRST PRACTICE

Fast Southwest Clubmen to Have Light Drill Today—Johnny Smith to Be Coach.

The Spartan A. C. football team will hold its initial practice of the season this morning at Sixth and C streets southwest, at 10:30 a. m. All the members and candidates are expected to be present, as Capt. Beyer would like to get a line on his players.

The Southwest clubmen have secured the services of Jack Smith, former star tackle of Georgetown University, who will act in the capacity of coach. Everything points forward to a very successful season, as the team is intact, all of last year's men being out.

Prominent among the new members are "Dip" O'Neil and "Country" Beattie. These men should add material strength to the backfield, as both have had quite a little experience in these positions.

Manager Honnig would like to hear from all first-class teams in and around the District. Address all correspondence to A. E. Hennage, 261 Seventh street southwest.

CARLTON ELEVEN IN LINE.

The Carlton football team held a meeting last night at the clubroom for the election of officers, and the general re-union of the last year's squad. Manager De La Verge will have charge of the election of the team. The Carlton line-up is as follows: A. Goldstein, center; R. Robinson, second base; L. Towles, first base; G. Swanton, short stop; J. Goetz, left field; H. Shapiro, right field; G. Mc Coy, third base; W. Tucker, and K. Rhine, pitchers, and H. Garner and A. Krift, catchers.

CONTENDING CLUBS HAVING UPHILL RACE

Here is the revised National League schedule, that includes all double-headers. This shows that none of the four teams contending for the pennant has any snap during the balance of the year:

September 5—Giants at Brooklyn (two games), Boston at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Cincinnati, Philadelphia at Chicago.

September 6 (Sunday)—St. Louis at Cincinnati, Pittsburgh at Chicago.

September 7 (Labor Day)—Giants at Boston (a. m. and p. m.), St. Louis at Pittsburgh (two games), Cincinnati at Chicago (two games).

RICHMOND ALL-STARS TO PLAY VIGILANTS

Dr. Parker, of Battle-ax Fame Leads Southern Club Against Local Semi-pros Today.

"BUGS" DIXON SLATED TO HURL

The local amateur fans are to be treated to another intercity series today when the Vigilant club meets an all-star combination from Richmond, Va., at Andrews Park under the leadership of Dr. Parker, who gained fame for piloting the Battle Ax club.

The Richmond All-Stars are the fastest bunch of sand-lot players who have ever been turned out of the Richmond leagues, and with the addition of one or two of the All-Star club they should be able to hand the local club a good fight for the honors in the game.

Manager Oliver, of the Vigilants, will put his strongest line-up against the Vigilant club. The line-up of the clubs in the game is as follows: Richmond All-Stars, Burgh, Rodgers, Litchfield, Hulcher, McKee, Monen, White, French, Hecker, Blushy, Strong, Walker, and King. Vigilants, Munch, Giovanniotti, Dixon, Busher, Collier, Wood, Limerick, Heck, Long Green, Pee, Murphy, and Fitzgerald.

In the preliminary game, which starts at 1:30 p. m., the Asbury Browns will meet the Washington All-Stars under the leadership of Jack Tyler. Jimmy Hughes and Fritz Jeaschke will handle the pitching in both contests. The line-up of the clubs in the game is as follows: Richmond All-Stars, Burgh, Rodgers, Litchfield, Hulcher, McKee, Monen, White, French, Hecker, Blushy, Strong, Walker, and King. Vigilants, Munch, Giovanniotti, Dixon, Busher, Collier, Wood, Limerick, Heck, Long Green, Pee, Murphy, and Fitzgerald.

Chip is one of the few men in the ring today who is a conscientious fighter, and with a "game sport." He is one of the few men who can take a licking without whining, and without offering an alibi for an understanding performance. Chip has never been a victim, nor has he ever been a conqueror. He is one of the oddities of the ring, inasmuch as he never mixes with others of his profession and does not talk "shop" when out of the ring. Nor does he have much to say when engaged in active battling.

Many other fighters have done what Chip is doing in the coming match, but few have done it with the same heart and soul. Chip is a man who has been in the ring for many years, and he has never been knocked out. He is a man who has been in the ring for many years, and he has never been knocked out.

Malta Boat Club—H. E. H. Cox, associate single; Junior double, 104-pound class, Malone, bow; Campbell, stroke; Junior four-oared gig, intermediate four-oared gig, and senior four-oared shell (18-pound class) at the time was generally recognized as the middle-weight champion, and Chip knocked him out in six rounds, and a short time after repeated the dose in two rounds. Klaus has not fought since.

Salter Petrofsky then loomed up on the middle-weight champion. The tough manner endured Chip for six rounds of furious milling. Murray had matter to do before he was to be able to win. Chip's wicked punch in the fifth round, when he knocked out Chip with a punch, gave him the victory.

When Al McCoy knocked out Chip with a punch, he did not offer one word in explanation of the surprising defeat. He merely congratulated McCoy on his victory, packed his trunk and went home. McCoy, who had been beaten by Chip, was particularly so for one who is considered as the champion of his class.

Chip absented himself from the ring for several months when he returned for the fight with Al McCoy. He had been hit by McCoy on the head with a heavy blow, and he had been hit by McCoy on the head with a heavy blow, and he had been hit by McCoy on the head with a heavy blow.

LIVE SPORT WIRES

Governor Tener says that the baseball wins hurt the national pastime. "Quit your slinging," says Tener. "You'll get the business." Pitching is not the whole works of a ball team. A ball club is composed of four parts—pitching, batting, fielding, and brain work.

Hughy Jennings, Detroit leader, said some few months ago. "Give me a couple of good twirlers and I'll run away with the bunting." It is the belief of many that the twirlers would have run away with the bunting, and Jennings has but one good hurler on his staff, and that is George Daus, with an average of .383.

What's the matter with the "white hopes"? Gee, but they've become strangely silent since the real fighting began.

It is said Catcher Severoli, who the Browns purchased from Louisville, of the American Association, cut Col. Hedges $15,000.

Mucky McGraw says that Christy Mathewson is worth $24,000 and is good for five more years. Well, that's one player who knew how to save his maxima.

Freddie Welsh says that as soon as his stage contracts in England and Wales run out he's going to come over here to the United States.

Mostly all baseball managers want nothing but the big players. But maybe they would like to have these midsize on their clubs. Schalk, Cicotte, McNinn, Evers, Maranville, Malsel, and Leach.

CHIP A HIGHER ORDER ALI

Former Middle-weight Champion Will Give Billy Murray Return Bout.

IS UNASSUMING BATTLER

Newcastle Scrapper Is One of the Few in Ring Today that Can Take a Real Beating.

New York, Sept. 5.—George Chip and Billy Murray, contenders for the much-sought middle-weight championship, will renew their feud out in California on Admission Day, which will be observed next Wednesday. Jim Coffroth is responsible for the rematching of this pair, and "Bunny Jim" will conduct festivities at his Mission street arena, in San Francisco.

While the outcome of this twenty-round tilt will have no effect on the European war, it nevertheless will eliminate for all time one of the combatants as a pretender to the middle-weight throne.

The match also serves to bring to the surface the finer qualities of George Chip, an unassuming fighter as ever. He is a man who has been in the ring for many years, and he has never been knocked out.
